SELECTION OVERVIEW

NextGen Team Objective: The objective of the NextGen Selection Guidelines is to select athletes and crews (which shall include coxswains and single scullers) that have the potential to support the success of RCA teams at Future Olympic and Paralympic events. This includes but not limited to achieving an ‘A’ Final position (top 6) at designated international competitions.

★ Rowing Canada Aviron is carefully following the evolution of the coronavirus (COVID-19) and how it may impact the 2022 NextGen Selection Guidelines. Rowing Canada Aviron (RCA) reserves the right to modify the published Guidelines on the best available information. Any modifications will be made promptly and will be communicated to all affected individuals as soon as possible.

PURPOSE

This document establishes the process and criteria to be used to select and nominate the following 2022 RCA National Teams:

1. Under 23 World Rowing Championships.
2. Junior World Rowing Championships
3. Junior CanAmMex Team

OVERVIEW

This Selection Guidelines document was drafted and prepared by RCA and came into effect immediately upon publication on the RCA website on January 4, 2022. RCA may also communicate and distribute this Selection Guidelines to relevant athletes through other channels available to the athletes. RCA reserves the right to amend this document for changes imposed by parties external to RCA or for changes that become necessary due to typographical error or a lack of clarity in a definition or wording.

Any changes made by RCA are deemed to come into effect immediately upon publication on the RCA website. Additional publication of the amended Selection Guidelines will be made by whatever means and wherever the original Selection Guidelines was published. RCA will communicate changes directly to targeted athletes who have completed the 2022 Expression of Interest form. (Point 3, page 4)

SCOPE

This Selection Guidelines document will be used to select Athletes to National Teams competing at the following events for 2022:

2022 CanAmMex	July 4-10, 2022 - London, Ontario
2022 World Rowing U23 Championships	July 25-31, 2022 - Varese, Italy
2022 World Rowing JR Championships	July 25-31, 2022 - Varese, Italy

SELECTION ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

All athletes wishing to be considered for selection must satisfy all of the following requirements:

1. GENERAL ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

All athletes and coaches selected to RCA National Teams must be registered and be in good standing with the Canadian Association of Amateur Oarsmen (CARA), which operates under the name Rowing Canada Aviron (RCA). Athletes must hold a valid Canadian passport or be eligible to row for Canada. Athletes must follow all relevant World Rowing, International Paralympic Committee (IPC) and International Olympic Committee (IOC) (&/or the Pan American Sport Organization) rules regarding eligibility.

For clarity, to be in good standing with the CARA, an athlete must be a registered participant with a member of the CARA and:

- their membership dues and any debts to RCA are not overdue;
- they are not subject to a disciplinary sanction of either suspension from specified or from all RCA teams, activities, events, or competitions or expulsion from CARA membership, following a process under the RCA Discipline Policy (or equivalent); and
- in any case where disciplinary sanction by CARA under the RCA Discipline Policy (or equivalent), they have fulfilled all terms and conditions of the disciplinary sanction to the satisfaction of the Board of Directors or its designate.

2. AGE AND OTHER ADDITIONAL ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

Under 23:	Born in 2000 or later. A rower or coxswain is classified as Under 23 until December 31st of the year in which they reach the age of 22. After that date, they shall be classified as Senior.
Junior:	Born in 2004 or later. A rower or coxswain is classified as Junior until December 31st of the year in which they reach the age of 18. After that date they shall be classified as Under 21 or Under 23.

All listed above must have a Canadian passport valid until March 2023

3. ATHLETE EXPRESSION OF INTEREST

Athletes are required to complete the “Athlete Expression of Interest” form at the following link.

The submission deadline for all programs is FEBRUARY 28th, 2022

4. ATHLETE TESTING AND MONITORING

Athletes must comply with the minimum testing and monitoring outlined in RCA’s NextGen Testing and Monitoring Document. This Document can be found at the following link.

5. 2022 ATHLETE AGREEMENTS

All athletes that are invited to a Final Selection Event will be emailed details on completing the 2022 Athlete Agreement. Agreements must be completed prior to an athlete attending a selection event or a camp proceeding a selection event.

 Late receipt may jeopardize selection – circumstances will be reviewed by RCA’s High-Performance Director on a case by case basis*

6. ATHLETE FEES

All athletes wishing to be considered for selection to the events listed within this document should be aware of and prepared for potential fees contingent on being named to a team. A schedule of all deposits and assessment fees for the 2022 events will be published by April 15th, 2022.

SELECTION CRITERIA

The objective of the NextGen Selection Guidelines is to select athletes and crews (which shall include coxswains and single scullers) that have the potential to support the success of RCA teams at Future Olympic and Paralympic events. This includes but not limited to achieving an ‘A’ Final position (top 6) at designated international competitions.

Athletes will be invited to Selection Events using the process outlined in Appendix 2.

At each selection event athletes may be selected to a team in accordance with the athlete’s performance and achievement with respect to the following criteria (“Selection Criteria”):

1. Performance results in 2022 including but not limited to:
 - a. Time trials of various distances, including but not limited to 2000M,

- b. Small and/or large boat seat racing matrices (ie: seat racing all athletes on a given side against each other) and/or targeted seat racing (ie: select head to head races with direct swaps of relevant athletes),
- c. Designated ergometer assessments, or
- d. Racing results, including but not limited to, results achieved at the 2021 World Rowing Championships (u23 and JR)

In addition, RCA may consider the following other factors during the team selection processes (“Other Criteria”):

1. Ongoing ergometer testing as per 2022 RCA NextGen Testing and Monitoring Document.
2. Performance at Regional Qualification events and other Selection Events athletes have been invited to attend.
3. Factors relevant to crew combination, namely crew compatibility (ie: how individuals perform as a team), coachability, and technical compatibility;
4. Commitment to the program;
5. Assessment of competitive readiness (ie: fitness relative to previous assessments and to peers); and
6. Additional factors relevant to achieving RCA team objectives including but not limited to potential development of the athlete or coach for subsequent National Teams and ultimately Senior Team selection.

If an athlete has any questions with respect to the above Selection Criteria and/or Other Criteria, they may contact the NextGen Program Lead or the identified designate to obtain clarification.

From time to time as required, supplemental program specific information may be posted on the Rowing Canada Aviron website at: <https://rowingcanada.org/resources/> and circulated through other communication channels utilized but RCA.

For Coxswains to be considered for selection, the following will also be considered, in addition to the above Selection Criteria and Other Factors:

1. Athlete and coach assessment of the coxswain’s ability;
2. Compatibility with other athletes in the selected crew and coaches;
3. Declared ability to meet weight guidelines (as per FISA Rule 21) subject to verification from RCA SSSM experts; and
4. Racing experience and results.

See Appendix 5 for Coxswain application process

For Lightweight athletes to be considered for selection, they must be able to demonstrate they are able to meet crew average weight requirements (as per FISA Rule 22) and are expected to be able to follow a weight management protocol throughout the year. For the 2022 Small boat trails and Selection Events, unless otherwise indicated, the maximum weight for each athlete shall be:

- Lightweight Women: 57kg
- Lightweight Men: 70kg

For Coaches to be considered for selection, RCA reserves the right to nominate the coach believed to be able to produce the best performance of the athlete or crew at the designated event. Coaching appointments may be made to achieve strategic objectives or meet certain principled standards. The details of coach selection are outlined in Appendix 6.

SELECTION AUTHORITY

The final authority for Team selection rests with RCA’s NextGen Program Lead This authority is based upon the nominations made by individuals noted in the chart below and all other criteria within this document.

Athletes may be considered for late invitation to various selection activities (depending on schooling commitments, or other special circumstances, etc.). The NextGen Program Lead may also choose to invite athletes based on ‘Special Circumstances’ outlined below.

The NextGen Program Lead will consult the relevant National Coaching staff and may delegate their authority for selection to another individual(s) as indicated below.

Delegated responsibility for selecting Boats and Athletes to represent RCA is noted in the chart below.

Team	Selection Responsibility
World Rowing Under 23 Championships	NextGen Program Lead or Coaching designate
World Rowing Junior Championships	NextGen Program Lead or Coaching designate
CanAmMex	NextGen Program Lead or Coaching designate

FINAL SELECTION DATES

The final selection date for crews is as shown in the following table. Athletes and potential alternates for those crews, will be named on these dates. After these dates, there will be no further Crews selected, except as allowed by certain ‘Special Circumstances’ as noted below. However, placement of these athletes in specific crews may be changed up to the date of competition, based upon the appropriate assessment of the Crew’s competitiveness and subsequent approval by the High Performance Director or NextGen Program Lead.

Team	Selection / Nomination Completion Date
World Rowing Under 23 Championships	June 12, 2022
World Rowing Junior Championships	June 28, 2022
CanAmMex	June 28, 2022

The NextGen Program Lead has the discretion to change any of the above selection or nomination dates. The team is not official until posted on the RCA website.*

AUTHORITY TO MAKE CHANGES TO THE COMPOSITION OF CREWS - ONCE THE TEAM IS SELECTED

Selection to a National Team as part of a crew (or an alternate) does not guarantee an athlete a place in a specific crew for the regatta. For crews selected to the above events, the composition of Crews shall remain the discretion of the NextGen Program Lead, Program Coach, and Team Leader. The configuration of crews may be changed based on a crew’s competitiveness and such changes will follow the appropriate competition regulations.

ON-SITE DECISION-MAKING AUTHORITY

During the training and competition period at an ‘away’ venue all final decision-making authority will reside with the team leader.

The responsibilities of the team leader will first and foremost be creating and supporting an environment that supports performance excellence at their event, in addition to:

- Leading all matters related to crisis management, emergency preparedness and response,
- Manages team member human resources, roles and responsibilities, accreditations and conduct issues on behalf of RCA,
- Acts as spokesperson for the team and RCA on-site pertaining to any issues on entries, FISA/PASO regulations and organizing committee communication, and
- Responsible for ensuring the team and members comply with RCA/FISA/PASO regulations and agreements signed by team and members.

SPECIAL CIRCUMSTANCES

If because of injury, illness, or extenuating circumstance an athlete is unable to meet any of the criteria set out in this document, an athlete may still be considered for selection to a National Team. Athletes must advise the RCA High Performance Director in writing of any injury, illness, or personal extenuating circumstance as soon as possible. In the case of illness or injury, a medical certificate signed by the Athlete's doctor must be submitted to RCA's Chief Medical Officer. In the event an Athlete who has been selected in National Team becomes injured or ill, and in the opinion of the NextGen Program Lead (with advice of the Chief Medical Officer where relevant), is not deemed fit to compete, then the Athlete may be replaced with another Athlete. The choice of replacement Athlete is at the sole discretion of the High NextGen Program Lead, in consultation of the relevant coach. In all cases, permission to be exempted from any requirement contained within this document must be obtained in writing from the NextGen Program Lead.

Failure to properly report injury, illness, and/or other personal extenuating circumstances prior to the selection processes of each event may result in the athlete being de-selected and financially responsible for all the athlete's costs associated with the event.

REMOVAL FROM A TEAM ONCE SELECTED

The NextGen Program Lead may, remove an athlete from consideration to the Canadian Team based on the terms and conditions outlined in the RCA Athlete Agreement. RCA will advise the affected athlete, in writing, of the decision.

Any such removals are subject to the approval of the NextGen Program Lead and High Performance Leadership Team. Reasons for dismissal include, but are not limited to:

- Inability to maintain high training standards,
- Inability to meet performance expectations in competition,
- Inability to perform due to injury, illness or for other medical reasons as determined by RCA's Chief Medical Officer,
- If the athlete has not taken part in the mandatory training camps organised by RCA prior to the event,
- If the athlete has not fulfilled his/her responsibilities as identified in the RCA Athlete Agreement, or
- Breach of policy conditions set out in the RCA Athlete Agreement, including;
 - Canadian Anti-Doping Program
 - RCA Code of Conduct

The RCA Athlete Agreement can be found on the following page: <https://rowingcanada.org/resources/> and the relevant policies identified as components of the Athlete Agreement can be found at: <https://rowingcanada.org/governance/> under the Policies Tab.

APPEAL PROCESS

Decisions made pursuant to these Selection Guidelines document may be appealed in accordance with the RCA Appeal Policy located on the RCA website.

If both parties (RCA and the appellant) are in agreement, or if timing restrictions require it, the RCA Appeal Guidelines can be bypassed and the matter may be brought immediately before the Sport Dispute Resolution Centre of Canada (SDRCC), who will then manage the appeals process.

RELOCATION

Athletes selected onto a team may be required to relocate to a designated training location. See Appendix 1 for specific program information.

EVENT REQUIREMENTS

RCA National Selection Guidelines outline the broad selection criteria for all rowers and coxswains and can also be viewed on the RCA website. These Event Requirements operate as an appendix to the RCA Selection Guidelines and outline the activities that rowers and coxswains must complete to be eligible for selection for a Canadian Team.

All athletes must complete all activities stipulated in these Event Requirements (except for activities marked 'participation encouraged') unless there are Special Circumstances that prevent this, in which case RCA is to be notified of the reason as soon as possible, and in accordance with the Guidelines noted in this document. The selection process for all Rowing Canada 2022 NextGen National Teams will include the following requirements as indicated (and as outlined below):

APPENDIX

1. Targeted Boats and Training Locations – Appendix 1
2. Invitation to Selection Events – Appendix 2
3. Selection Events – Appendix 3
4. Assessment Fees – Appendix 4
5. Coxswain Specifics – Appendix 5
6. Coach & Team Leader & Team Support Staff selection – Appendix 6
7. Important Dates – Appendix 7
8. RCA High Performance Contact details – Appendix 8

 Rowing Canada Aviron is carefully following the evolution of the coronavirus (COVID-19) and how it may impact the 2022 NextGen Selection Guidelines. Rowing Canada Aviron reserves the right to modify the published Guidelines on the best available information. Any modifications will be made promptly and will be communicated to all affected individuals as soon as possible.

APPENDIX 1: Targeted Boats and Training Locations

Targeted Boats: Through the course of the year RCA will review the eligible athlete pool. Based on the number, and level, of athletes RCA will establish two categories of boats to be selected for NextGen events.

The goal of this strategy is to target performance boats while supporting growth and development of athletes and the program. The intent is to recognize the different stages of the High Performance Pathway that athletes are on and ensure opportunities for both.

Targeted Boats: Athletes and boats that have demonstrated they have met a standard to win a medal. Additional race opportunities may be provided to athletes selected to these boats.

Development Boats: Athletes and Boats that have demonstrated they are on the High Performance Pathway and meet the NextGen objective of supporting the success of RCA teams at Future Olympic and Paralympic events.

When athletes are invited to selection events they may be directed to selection activities for one or both of these categories

See Appendix 3.b for specifics on selection

Training Locations: Once boats are selected, they will be assigned to training location as outlined below.

Targeted Boats: All Targeted boats will train at Rowing Canada's National Training Centre (NTC) in Duncan, BC.

Development Boats: Development boats will train at one of the following. NTC in Duncan, BC, or a designated NextGen performance Centre.

RCA reserves the right to adjust training locations to best support the objectives of the NexGen Program.

APPENDIX 3: SELECTION EVENTS

Selection events are by invitation only. Athletes will be invited to selection events based on the process outlined in Appendix 2.

Selection Process:

RCA will use a series of races to rank and select athletes to each boat. This may include but not limited to:

- Side by side racing
- Matrixing
- Seat Racing
- Time trials

Information will be communicated to invited athletes prior to each round of racing. Results will be published at the conclusion of each stage of selection.

The following is an overview of dates and location for each selection event. Changes will be communicated directly to those invited.

Junior Selection Camp: Junior selection camp will start as early as June 6th pending the availability of invited athletes, and the ability to bring athletes together for selection activities. The Junior Selection Camp will close on June 28th, 2022. Specific dates will be confirmed with those invited.

U23 Selection Camp: U23 Selection camp will start on May 9th and continue as needed until June 12th, 2022.

Athletes may be invited to train at the NTC- Quamichan or other designated training locations prior to the selection event based on their past performances and results from the Athlete Monitoring process.

- ★ Due to the impact of COVID-19 on the training and competition schedule, selection events may be held earlier or later than posted above. Changes will be communicated as soon as known.

APPENDIX 4: ASSESSMENT FEES

It is the goal of the NextGen Program to minimize the assessment fees charged to athletes.

For 2022 RCA has the goal of achieving the following assessment fees*.

World Rowing U23 Championships:	$2500
World Rowing Junior (u19) Championships:	$4500
CanAmMex:	$2000

* Fees are subject to change based on costs associated with events and logistics, all assessment fees will be confirmed in April 2022.

Assessment Fees are event-based fees and included the following:

- Airfare from training location to event and return to Canada.
- Meals and Accommodations for Event and European Camp
- Ground transportation at event
- Equipment at event
- Coaching support
- Uniform

Assessment fees do not cover pre-event costs during selection camps and Canadian based training camps. Athletes will be invoiced for these separately, as required.

APPENDIX 5: COXSWAIN SPECIFIC

NextGen Coxswain process for invitation to selection events

Overview: Coxswain selection is by definition a subjective undertaking. Ultimately, the selected coxswain should be able to make the boat go faster over an extended period of time leading up to a competition. Assessment of coxswain readiness should be based upon evaluation of compiled submissions and reviewed by the applicable Program Lead or Lead Coach.

Eligible NextGen Coxswains interested in invitation to a 2022 selection event are required to submit an application.

Application requirements:

Application deadline: 17:00 Pacific Time, April 30, 2022

Athletes to send all submission requirements to Laura Isherwood at: lisherwood@rowingcanada.org .

Invitations for Coxswains to selection events will be included with the final invitation list.

TEAM LEADER and SUPPORT STAFF SELECTION

An event’s team leader or support staff will be appointed by the NextGen Program Lead. Generally, appointments will be made from existing RCA employees, but should additional requirements exist, RCA will advertise the application process with an official notice. If appointment of sports medicine support staff are required to support a team, RCA’s Chief Medical Officer will play a role in the identification and selection/nomination of those practitioners.

COACH SELECTION

RCA reserves the right to nominate the coach believed to be able to produce the best performance of the athlete or crew at the designated event. Coaching appointments may be made to achieve strategic objectives or meet certain principled standards. Coaches who have demonstrated to be on the performance pathway and supporting RCA’s High Performance programs will be provided preferential consideration.

Mentorship opportunities may also be created to provide further opportunities for development.

Whenever possible RCA is committed to have an equal representation of Female and Male Coaches across the NextGen program.

Selection of Crew Coaches for all teams will be at the sole discretion of the NextGen Program Lead, with input from the respective National team coaches and National Team Operations Director. Selection considerations include previous experience, performance of athletes coached, coaching qualifications and long-term development strategy.

Coach Selection Prerequisites - Coaches interested in selection for a national team role (at any level) must complete an Expression of Interest application form, before January 15th, 2022. The Expression of Interest outlines the coach’s coaching record, qualifications, program(s) of interest, and their availability to relocate to coach the identified crew (if required).

Minimum Qualifications:

Under 23 Worlds	Junior Worlds	CanAmMex
Performance Coach Certified	★	Performance Coach Trained
Registered as a Coach in good standing with Rowing Canada Aviron

Other requirements (to be completed before May 1st, 2022) include:
