RE: Tony Zasada Memorial Fund Award

We are pleased to attach the application form for this year's Tony Zasada Memorial Fund Award.

This $2000 award is provided annually to an athlete who best emulates Tony's character and determination - many of Canada's National Team and Olympic Rowing Team members are former award recipients and this year marks the award's 38th Anniversary.

Please forward this document to any deserving candidate that meets the criteria for this award.

Applications must be received by November 30, 2022 and should be forwarded via e-mail to:

THE TONY ZASADA MEMORIAL FUND AWARD

Tony Zasada joined the Regina Rowing Club in 1978 at the age of 15. He was not doing a lot that summer, so his mother suggested that he join the canoe club on Wascana Lake. Tony went down to the lake, and unfortunately for the canoe club but fortunately for rowing, he went to the wrong club.

Tony's rowing skills developed very quickly, and within a couple of years he was a Canadian and Henley medal winner. In 1982 he headed off to the University of Victoria where he rowed in their varsity program for several years. By 1983 Tony had made his way to the Canadian National Rowing Team, receiving a bronze medal in the eight at the Pan American Games in Venezuela. In 1984, he was named to the coxed pair at the Los Angeles Olympic Games, where he and his crewmates, Harold Backer and Tan Barkley, came 5th in a field of 22. Five days after returning from the Games, Tony was killed by a drunk driver in a car accident.

In 2009 Tony, along with his crewmates, was inducted posthumously into the University of Victoria Sports Hall of Fame.

To commemorate Tony's life and his contributions to Canadian rowing, the Saskatchewan Rowing Association, Rowing Canada Aviron, and the Zasada family established The Tony Zasada Memorial Award, offering the first award in 1985. This $2000 award is provided annually to an athlete who best emulates Tony's character and determination. Many of Canada's National Team and Olympic Rowing Team members are former award recipients.
